Throughout the year we will be offering you library releases and other special release wines. As a wine club member these offers are exclusive to you for a set amount of time, and then offered to the general public for a short time. Members always get first priority of new release, library, and limited production wines.

Your credit cards will be charged approximately one week prior to the above ship dates. Please allow 3-5 days shipping time. If you have any questions, please call us at the winery any time.

* All ship dates are approximate and may change due to weather conditions, or delays at our shipping company. If there is a drastic change we will notify you promptly.
